CONEMAUGH TOWNSHIP

HIGH SCHOOL

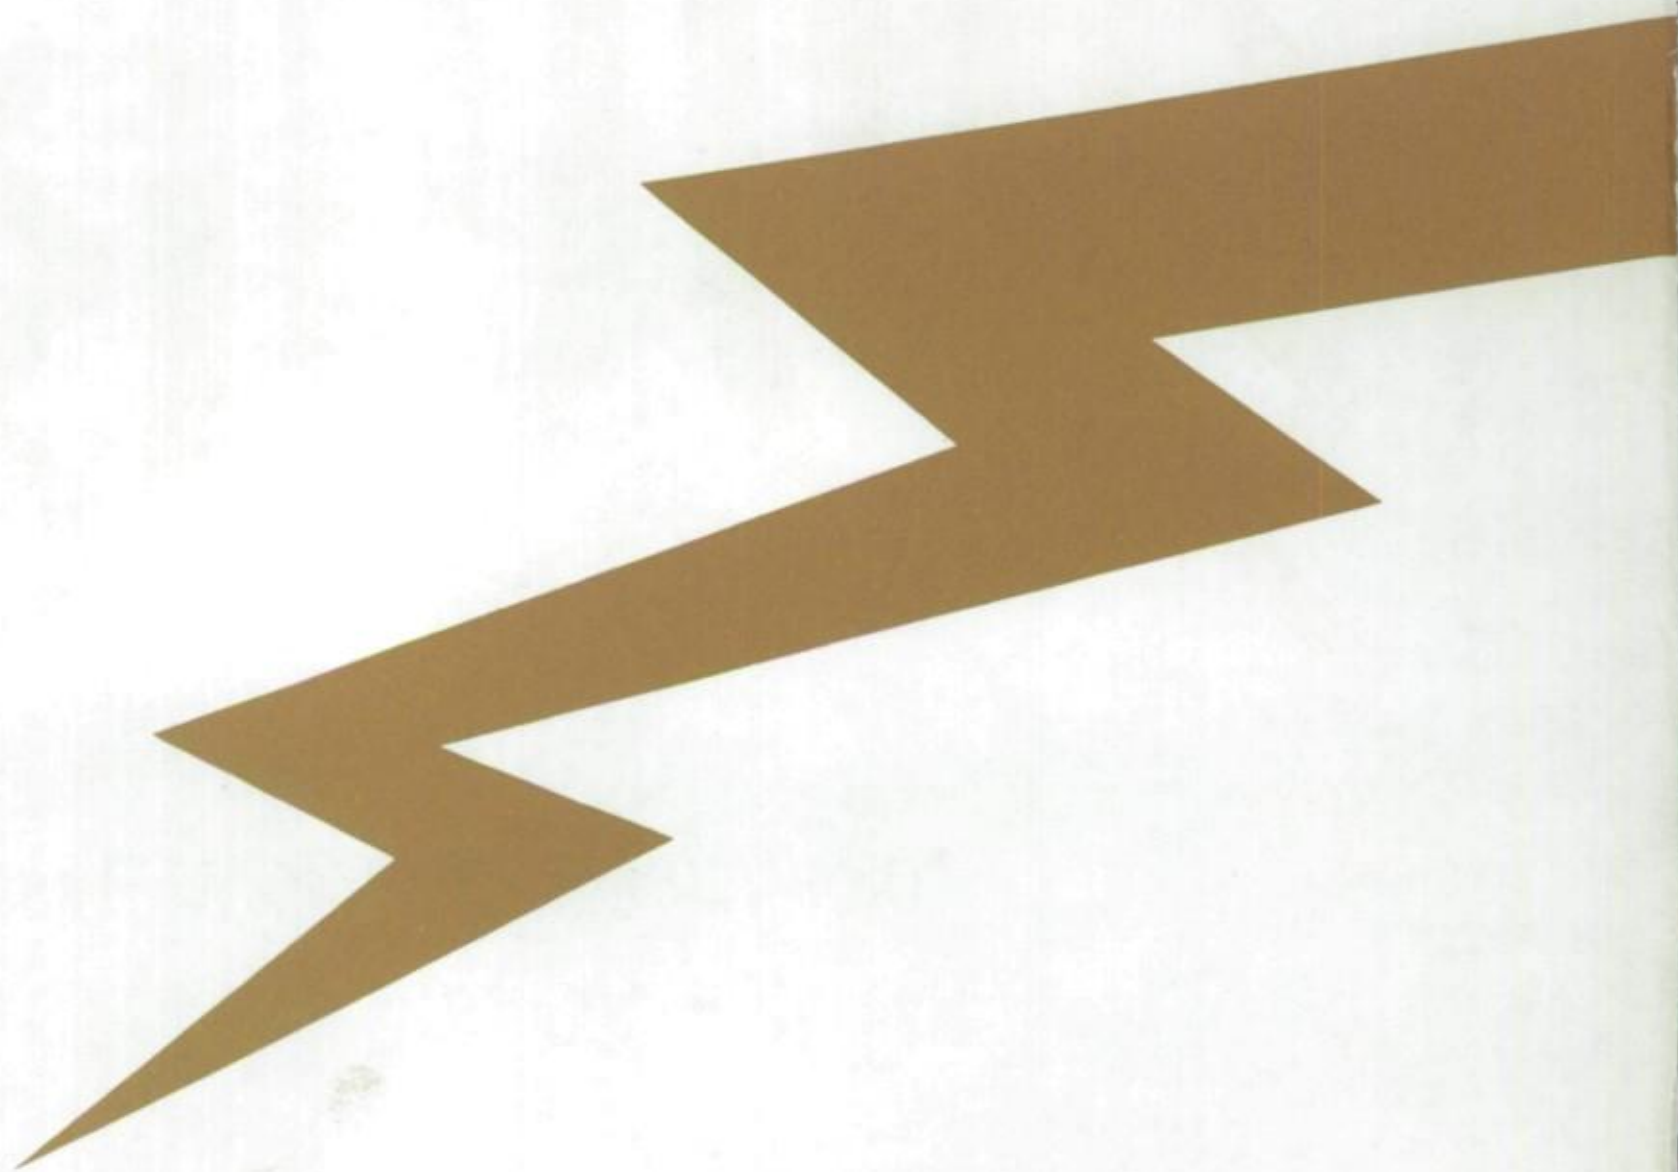

DAVIDSVILLE, PA.

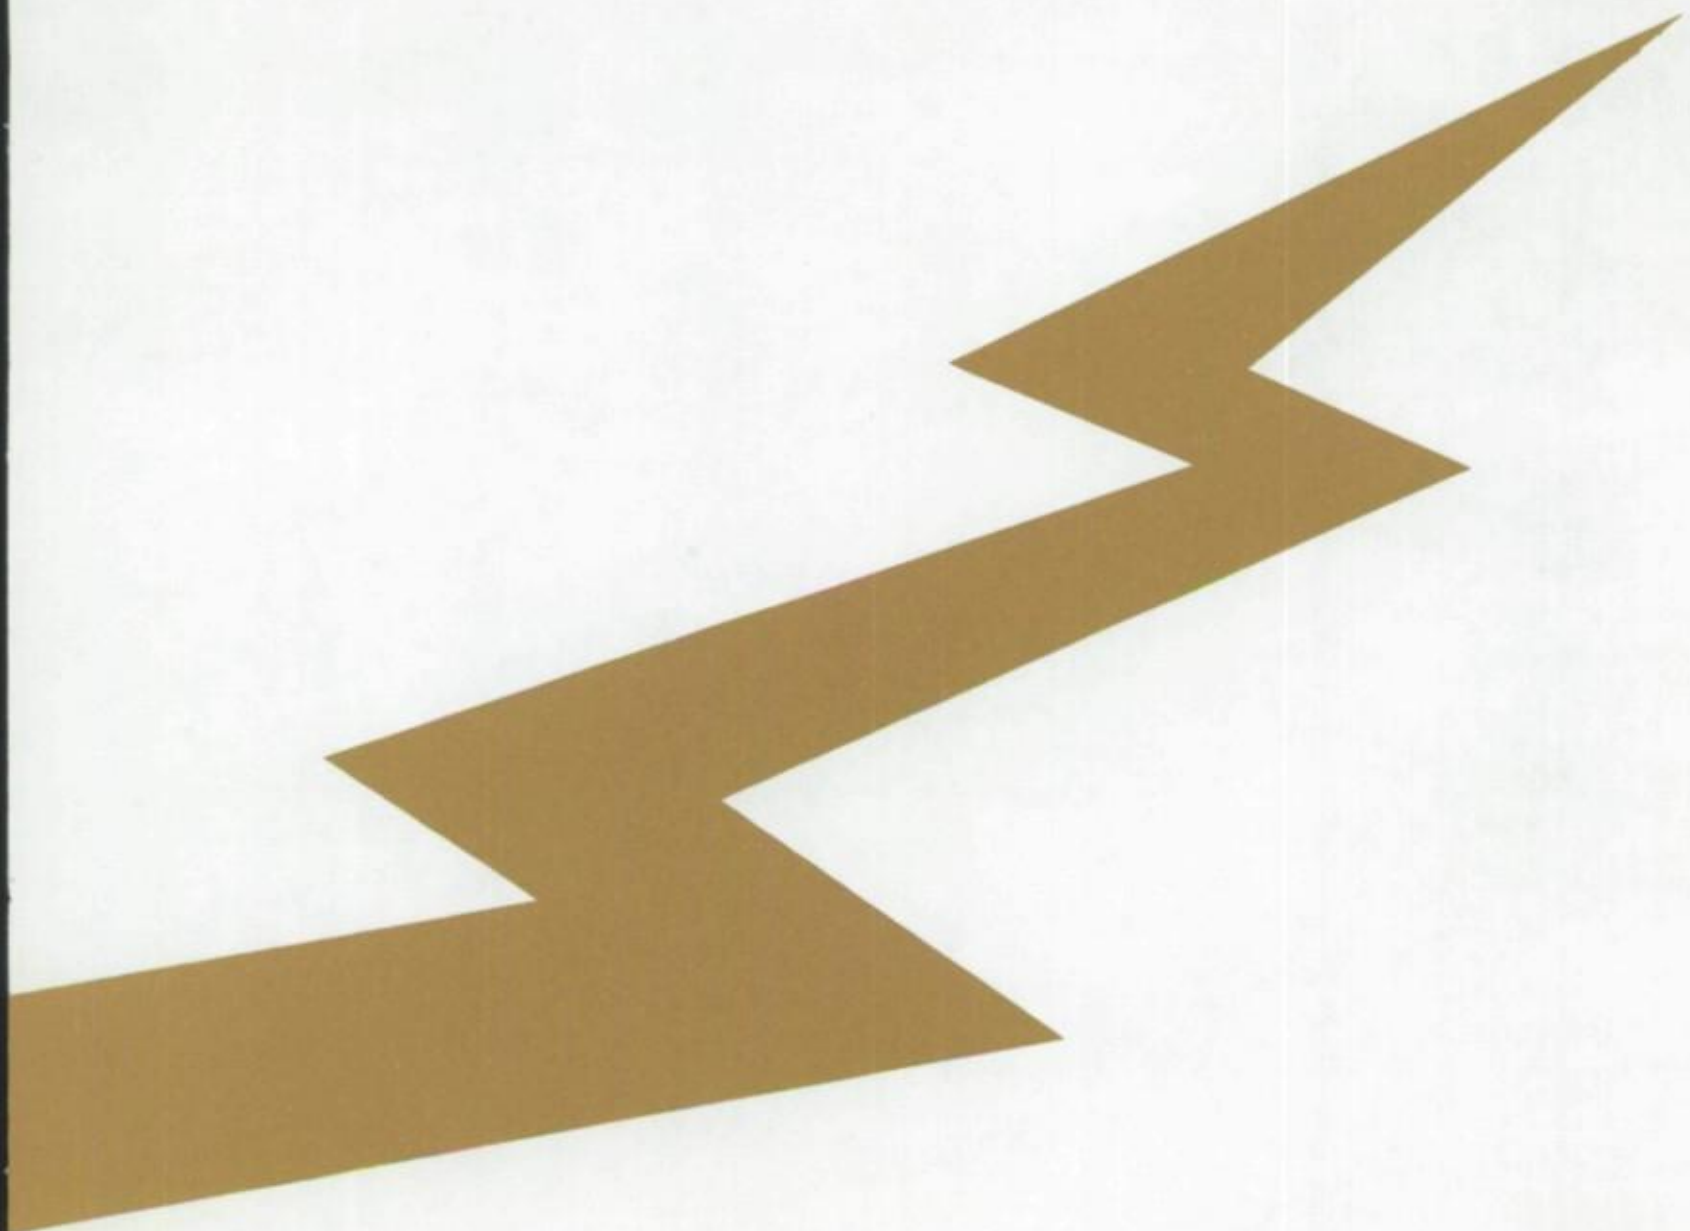

ALMA MATER

Oh, Conemaugh with spacious halls
and campus bright and green,
Our fondest memories will remain
with each endearing scene.

We'll ever pledge our loyalties,
devoted hearts to you,
To Thee, our Alma Mater, we'll ever more be true.

Hail, hail to the Red and Black,
Hail to our school with a cheer,
We give our best to Conemaugh,
Whose fellowship we hold so dear.

SUPPLEMENT

DEDICATION

Throughout high school, we are deeply influenced by our teachers. Most of them extend their influence over the short period of one year. However, two of our teachers advise us from the beginning of our Freshman year until graduation day. It is to them, our class deans, that we dedicate this yearbook.

During our Freshman magazine campaign, Mrs. McFeaters and Mr. Fuller supported and encouraged us as we strove to reach our goal. Our Sophomore Christmas Dance would never have been successful without their help. In our Junior year, they guided us as we undertook our biggest project, the Prom. As we look back on these events, we realize how often we forgot to say thank you for the helping hand they gladly offered. We know these few paragraphs can never express fully our gratitude to them. We can only hope our future achievements convey our sincere thanks better than these written words.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

MR. JOHN CHOBANY

Indiana University of Pennsylvania, B.S.; University of Pittsburgh, M. Ed.; Graduate work at University of Pittsburgh; Supervising Principal.

To Seniors of 1967:

Formal Public School Education is a distinct privilege which we as Americans enjoy. It is my sincere hope that you have enjoyed this privilege and the experiences it has provided during your stay in the Conemaugh Township Union School System.

I deeply appreciate the opportunity of sharing with you the accomplishments you have attained. We feel our school is a better place because you were here and shared with us your progress by your willingness to help and to learn.

May happiness and success be your good fortune as you apply the experiences of school days in life. My sincere congratulations with best wishes for continued successes are extended to each member of the Class of 1967.

John Chobany
Supervising Principal

PRINCIPAL

MR. DONALD W. DRENNER

University of Pittsburgh, B.S., M. Ed.; Graduate work at Susquehanna University, Howard University, Juniata College, Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Study, University of California; High School Principal.

Throughout your days at C.T.H.S. your class has exhibited many outstanding qualities. You have helped to establish tradition and you have deepened the inroads of custom. Your records in scholastic attainment, in dramatics, in athletics, in music, and in all other educational phases have now become a part of the history of C.T.H.S.

You are soon to become citizens of the world and will be faced with many new and challenging decisions. As you weigh in the balance the good and evil of each decision, I profoundly hope that your judgements will bear witness to the good as taught and learned at C.T.H.S.

It is with pride, happiness, and humility that I wish you Godspeed in all of your future activities; and in years to come may your reflections on your class "The Class of 1967" bring again, the happiness that you once knew.

Finally, may the blessings of the Almighty be yours.

Donald W. Drenner
High School Principal

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

IN MEMORIAM

JUDITH LAMBERTUS

One more Unfortunate,
Weary of breath,
Rashly importunate,
Gone to her death!

Take her up tenderly,
Lift her with care:
Fashion'd so slenderly,

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Cheaper By The Dozen", a three-act comedy, was presented by the Junior Class on April 16, 1966. The play centers around the delightful Gilbreth family and its efficiency expert father. His plans to use the family as a group experiment run into complications when his oldest daughter begins to take an interest in boys.

"CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN"

Dad is horrified that Anne intends to wear a silk slip!

"Let's have a hoo, rah, ray, and a tiger for Montclair High."

The family dog, who enjoys sleeping on Dad's bed, is led outside by Dan and Freda.

Freda and Martha demonstrate their mastery of the French language by singing a chorus of "Frere Jacques" much to the disgust of their father.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class presented Thornton Wilder's classic, "Our Town," on December 11, 1966. The play probes into the lives of the citizens of a typical small town, Grover's Corners, New Hampshire. One of the first serious dramatic plays to be presented at C.T.H.S., "Our Town" was truly a challenge in all aspects of its presentation. The cast and directors deserve to be commended for their tireless effort which made this play a success.

The cast included: Stage Manager—Roger Knepper, Dr. Gibbs—Wally Shank, Joe Crowell—Steve Horwat, Howie Newsome—Larry Scislowicz, Mrs. Gibbs—Vivian Lucas, Mrs. Webb—Rosalind Wasnick, George Gibbs—Bill Intihar, Rebecca Gibbs—Portia Zareski, Wally Webb—David Palm, Emily Webb—Sara Keim, Professor Willard—Royden Thomas, Mr. Webb—Fred Slonka, Woman in the Balcony—Dixie Strayer, Man in the Auditorium—David Palm, Lady in the Box—Pat Gillin, Simon Stimson—Fred Lehman, Mrs. Soames—Betty Wertz, Constable Warren—Bill Howard, Si Crowell—Steve Horwat, Sam Craig—Dave Horner, Joe Stoddard—Dave Roseman, Baseball Players—Larry Scislowicz and Bill Howard.

"OUR TOWN"

A typical morning in the Gibbs household.

Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Webb gossip while stringing beans.

"I'm giving away my daughter, George. Do you think you can take care of her?"

Simon Stimson, the choir director, is always drinking, much to the dismay of the people of the town.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

"A Christmas Tree Carnival" was the theme of the Christmas Dance held on December 17, 1966. Music was provided by the Fascinations. The dance is sponsored annually by the Sophomore Class.

The Fascinations specialize in the stirring "young" music of today.

The faces of these Sophomores reflect the Christmas spirit that prevailed throughout the evening.

A CHRISTMAS TREE CARNIVAL

The dancers glide beneath gaily-colored streamers and balloons.

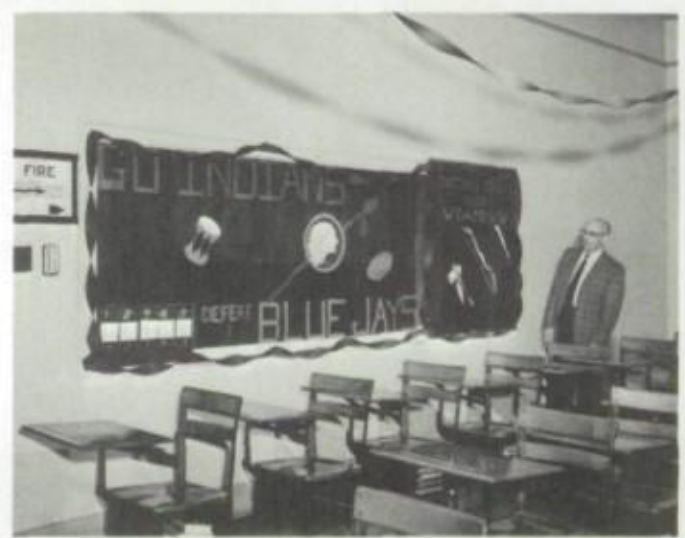

Pleasant conversation among friends adds to the enjoyment of the evening.

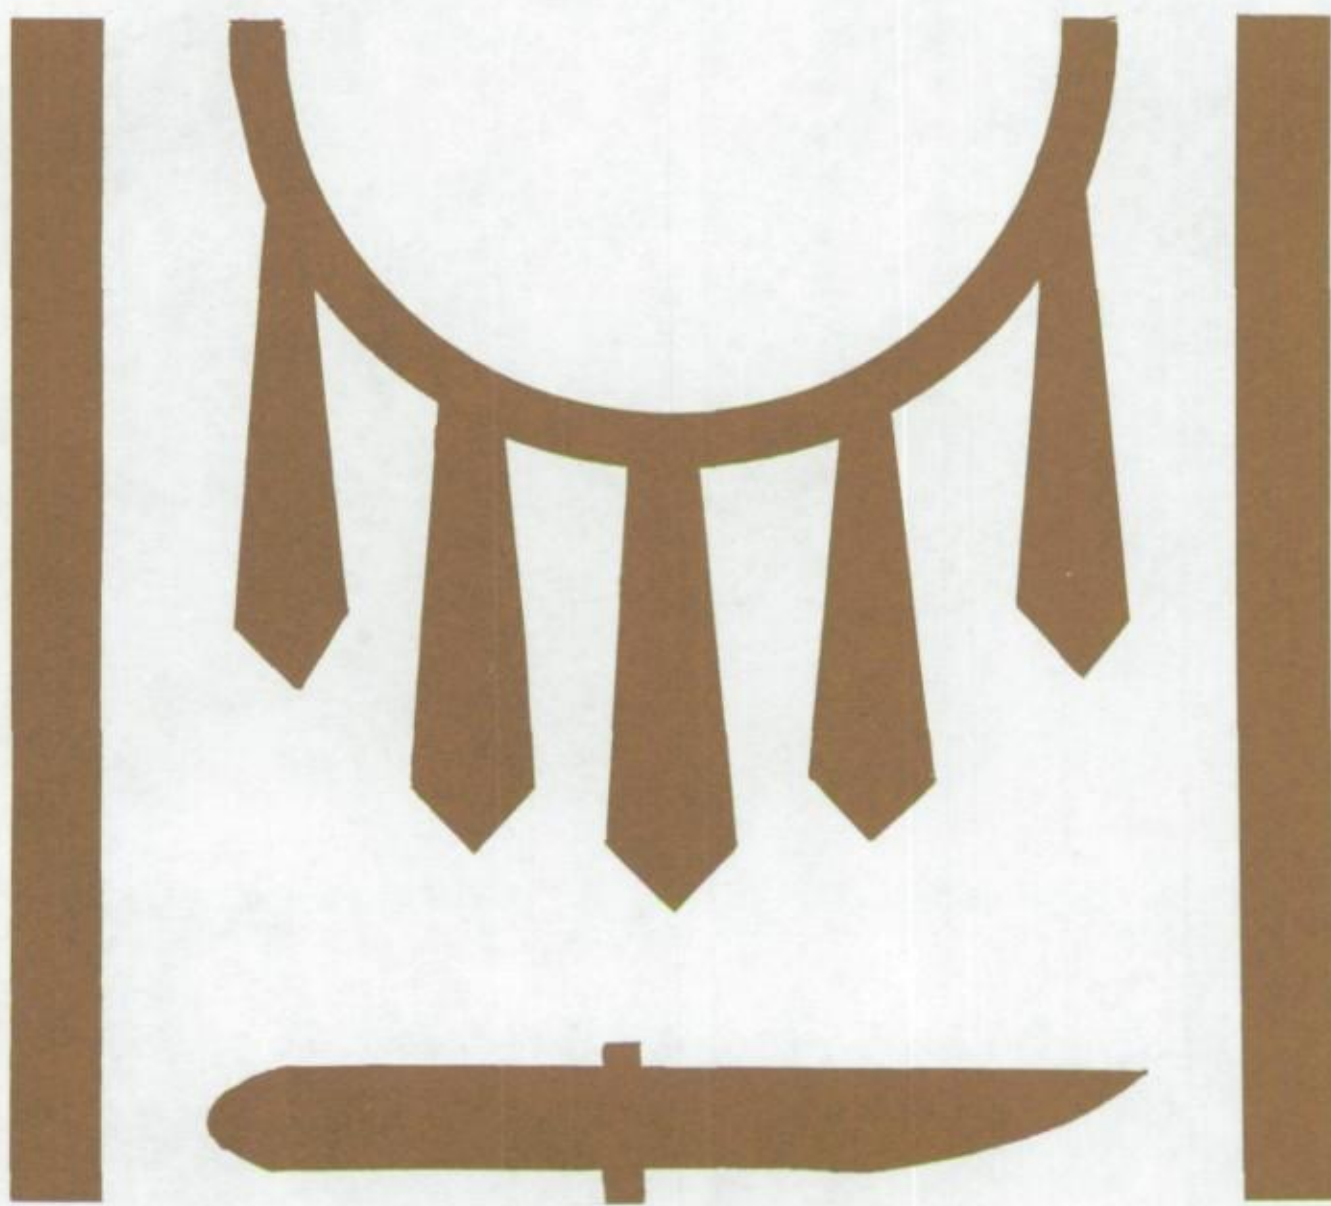

The delicious sandwiches and punch served at the refreshment table attract many couples.

MEMORIES

Our high school days will remain embedded in our memories for the rest of our lives. It is during this period that we discover ourselves through the influence of teachers and classmates. Long after names have been forgotten, the various activities in which we took part will be remembered.

as; (backfield) Terry Kuharchek, Fred Vitko, Dave Horner, and Denny Williamson.

Much of the strategy for the plays take place on the sidelines; here Coach Badaczewski advises Ray Fuller and David Monteith of the next play.

In the huddle plays are made during action on the field; listening to Terry Kuharchek are Royden Thomas, Walter Shank, Bill Intihar, Denny Williamson, Bob Blough, Dave Horner, Dan Nestor, Ray Fuller, Dave Roseman, and David Monteith.

Even though the team didn't have the best record, these seniors worked hard all season. The team had more than their share of bad breaks, but their morale was always high. All of these Senior Players have many good football memories to hold for the rest of their lives.
